Speaker Reviews

"Stephanie was knowledgeable, creative and a great speaker. Her presentation was very well received. Highly recommended."

Robert Welton, American Marketing Association

"... full of practical and immediately useful information and tips that was inhaled by our group. We'd have her back in a minute. I'd give her a 5.5 on a five-point scale for both information and presentation!"

Bruce Winner, American Society for Training and Development

"Stephanie clearly has a strong grasp of sales and marketing concepts and is passionate about their importance to any business. Her enthusiasm about the topic was contagious. We had a fun and interesting day learning from her."

Jessica Wallace, Health Net

"Stephanie is an excellent speaker and provides essential information that every writer needs. 'The Author's Guide to Building an Online Platform' should be on every writer's bookshelf between 'The Elements of Style' and the dictionary. It is impossible to become a successful author without Stephanie's help."

Michael Larsen, Founder of the San Francisco Writers' Conference

"Stephanie was an instant favorite. Not many speakers can combine real experience and humor the way she does. I was overwhelmed by the response from my attendees and would not hesitate to have Stephanie speak for us again."

Suzi Sherman, eWomenNetwork
